

Out o' Luck—and In Again!

THREE soldiers who had been cut off from canteen supplies for many days left the trenches for a brief respite.

"Oh, for a smoke!" said one.

"And something sweet—some chocolate or cookies!" said another.

"I need a tooth brush and some soap worse than anything," said the third.

They came into a desolated village. Not a soul was in sight.

"We're out o' luck!" they said. And then they turned a corner.

"There it is!" they cried. It was a sign on the only building left standing in the place. It was the canteen run by one of these seven recognized organizations.

"Who said we're out o' luck?" they shouted. "We're in again!"

More than 500 tons of supplies leave our ports every week under the direction of these seven agencies—just so that wherever the American soldier happens to be, he will find good cheer and comfort waiting for him. A splendid army of uniformed workers are now engaged in this work and General Pershing asks that at least a thousand more be sent each month.

Nothing is too much to do for those who are bearing the brunt of this war. What will you give for those who are giving everything?

MANAGER OF CREAMERY DEPOT BRINGS BRIDE TO ONTARIO

When J. E. Bradley quietly slipped away for a few days visit with friends in a southern Idaho city, no one was any the wiser concerning the real object of the trip. Monday morning Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Bradley alighted from the west bound train and are now at home to their many friends in the Trousdale house on the Eastside. The following is the account given the Argus reporter.

The marriage of Mrs. Mabel R. Harvey of Twin Falls to J. E. Bradley of Ontario took place Sunday morning in Hanson, Idaho, at Methodist parsonage of that city. About twenty-five of the most intimate friends and relatives of the bride and groom witnessed the ceremony, after which an elaborate wedding feast was spread. Many beautiful and costly presents were received and the best wishes of their many friends there were given to them as they left the next morning for their home in Ontario. Some of those present at the ceremony who are known to many Ontarians were Mrs. Harvey's daughter, Miss Ruth, who was visiting here this summer with Mr. and Mrs. S. H. Bender and family, and her other daughter and son Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Bender and children, formerly of Ontario, and her eldest son, John Harvey, editor of the Twin Falls Times.

Mrs. Bradley spent the summer here with her daughter Mrs. George Bender and has visited here before. J. E. Bradley is well known here despite his short residence in the city and has been local manager of the Commercial Creamery Co. since the establishment of that branch in Ontario.

What Do You Think Is My Share?

By BRUCE BARTON

He is a conscientious gentleman, who honestly wants to do right. And he came to me shaking his head.

"I want to do my full part in this United War Work Campaign," he said. "Do you think a hundred dollars is my share?"

And I told him that it would be hard for anyone but himself to decide. "There are so many different ways of looking at money," I said.

A hundred and seventy millions looks big at first glance. It is forty times what Jefferson gave for the Louisiana territory.

It's a dollar and seventy cents for every man, woman and child in the land; it's more than eight dollars and a half for every household.

"You can figure it on that basis," I told him. "On the basis of dollars and cents. Or you can figure it on the basis of boys."

"Of boys?" he questioned. "I do not understand."

"It's less than fifteen cents a day for each of our soldiers and sailors," I answered. "Fifteen cents a day to give them warmth and comfort and entertainment, and lectures, and games, and the thought of mother and of God."

"Fifteen cents a day for a boy; two for a quarter a day. How many boys will you take?"

And his eyes kindled. "I think I could take ten at least," he said. He drew his check book out.

"Figure it out and tell me the price," he said. "I want you to give them the best you've got. What is it going to cost?"

"For ten boys, for a year, at two for a quarter a day?"

So I figured it out for him: suppose you figure it out for yourself.

READY TO RECEIVE CHRISTMAS PACKAGES

Red Cross Committee Opens Headquarters and is Prepared to care for Forwarding Gifts Over Seas.

The headquarters for the Christmas box committee of the local Red Cross chapter which is charged with the work of preparing the packages for posting over seas has been opened in the Emison & Adam office, opposite the Post Office. The headquarters is open from 1 p. m. to 6 p. m. every week day.

The committee in charge is Mr. L. Adam, chairman, Mrs. W. W. Letson and J. H. Greig. The committee has a supply of cartons on hand and is prepared to expedite shipments for those who have the Christmas seals sent them by men in the service over there.

The Nyssa committee is headed by Mrs. Frank Hall and the Big Bend committee is headed by Mrs. Guy Johnson.

Want Names of Men
The Home Service section of the Red Cross, of which L. Adam is chairman requests that anyone who knows the name of any man from this section Malheur county covered by the Ontario Chapter who is in the service, to send the name to the committee.

The committee is trying to make its list complete but is short the names of several who enlisted early in the war. The names of these men are especially wanted, for the men inducted can be secured rapidly.

FATHER OF LARGE FAMILY DIES AFTER LONG ILLNESS

Ontario lost of its most loyal citizens and the influenza epidemic claimed its first Ontario victim thru the death of George Mossee Monday afternoon at 1:30 o'clock at the hospital. The funeral took place yesterday morning at 10 o'clock, and in accordance with the health rules of the city no indoor gathering was held. A simple and impressive service conducted by Rev. Fr. H. A. Campo was held at the graveside, burial being made in the St. Joseph's cemetery. Many beautiful floral tributes were given by the large number of friends of the deceased.

George Mossee was born in Austria forty-three years ago. He came to Ontario ten years ago and first located on the Dead Ox Flat. After a couple of seasons of farming there he came to town and purchased a home near the site of the present one which he built after the destruction by fire of the former. He joined the Knights of Columbus in 1912 and soon became one of best liked and most dependable members of that organization here. He leaves to mourn his death, a wife and eight children to whom the sincere and heart warm sympathy of all Ontario and its neighboring communities is given.

RAISING TURKEYS IS PROFITABLE BUSINESS

One Rancher Sells 400 Fine Thanksgiving Dinners for Approximately $1,000—Poultry Market Good.

What perhaps thwTughvotres. . . . What was perhaps the biggest single poultry deal ever made in Malheur county was consummated this week when Schur of the K. E. & D. ranch sold 400 young turkeys to the Independent Meat Market for slightly over $1,000. The price per pound was 25 cents, and that is the figure at which turkeys for the Thanksgiving market are being hot in all quantities.

The big flock sold by Mr. Schur is perhaps the largest in this section and has attracted the attention of everyone who has traveled the Boulevard road this summer. This deal also calls attention to the fact that poultry raising is one of the things which can be profitably followed in this section. There is no more ideal place for chickens and turkey raising than right here, says A. Robinson of the Independent Market, for conditions are right for the raising and there is market for all that can be sold.

Since Mr. Robinson purchased the Ice and Cold Storage and the Independent Market he has purchased $10,000 worth of poultry here in Ontario.

TO THE VOTERS OF MALHEUR COUNTY

On account of the heavy work in the Sheriff's office during the summer and fall I was unable to go out and meet the electors of this county personally, and want, at this time, to thank you for your loyal support.

I will at all times endeavor to perform the duties of the office of Sheriff to the best of my ability, and I feel sure of your hearty co-operation along all lines, in making my administration a success.

Respectfully,
H. LEE NOLAN
